

Dunyaquel

Fussion

DESCRIPTION

DUNYAQUEL FUSSION is a water-soluble nutritional complex that provides primary elements such as Phosphorus and Nitrogen, as well as a high concentration of essential microelements such as Boron and Molybdenum.

Its application on numerous crops enhances metabolic processes related to sprouting, flowering, fertilization and fruit and seed setting.

Phosphorus is essential for the fertility of buds and flower primordia. Boron is directly involved in the germination capacity of pollen grains and in the good development of the pollen tube, increasing the possibility of fertilization and reducing the number of non-viable flowers, fruits and seeds.

Molybdenum participates in nitrogen exchange in plants and microorganisms.

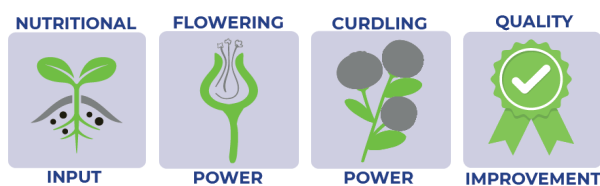

FEATURES

DUNYAQUEL FUSSION is recommended to enhance different metabolic processes in plants, including flowering and fruit and seed setting.

Its application before and after the flowering phase guarantees more intense blooms and more abundant fruit set.

DUNYAQUEL FUSSION has an activating effect on bud development and sprouting, being an important energetic activator at the moment of active plant growth.
